TOPICS OF THE DAY.

In the Aloha Aina of Thursday, a newspaper published in Hawaiian, is a lengthy article on the case of Breckenridge, lately a school-master at Hauula, who was fined $50 for a serious offence against one of his school girls, and then allowed to skip his bonds and go to the States. In commenting on it the Aloha Aina mentions previous cases at the Hilo Union School, Molokai, North Kona, Maui and in Honolulu. And says that even directly the missionary children and their offspring have been equally guilty. It says the English newspapers of the town and the foreigners both men and women constantly cast up the vices of the Hawaiians but they are silent as to those of their own race. That Christian are constantly asking for improvement among Hawaiians but the foreign schoolmasters who are imported to teach the young Hawaiians teach them more wickedness in the schools than they otherwise would know. It finishes up by saying: "It (meaning this importation of immoral teachers) is a great loss to the Hawaiian people as well as a veritable throwing away of their money to support the robbers in their slaying of the life of the Hawaiian people."

One feature which struck W. O. Smith was the universal use of English in New Zealand. (Of course he never heard of the Maori language or heard it used). And he remarked the probable success of our land could not be sure as we had too many languages to deal with. To the five he enumerated we will add another "The Towse" as exemplified in the Star's columns. What are we to make of this: After showing that "the startling legislation of the P. G. councils, and the still more startling provisions of our Republican constitution were due to the constant reiteration of the phrase "conditions were different" it goes on to say:

"At last it came to the pass that this incidental theory of Government was quite generally accepted. In one of his observations on his trip to New Zealand, W. O. Smith clinches this argument. It is when he tells of the use of the English language straight from one end of that country to the other. This means the Anglo-Saxon habit of general co-operation in public affairs."

Now what does this specimen of Towse mean? Who can explain it or translate it into the every day speech of Hawaii?

A short while ago we mentioned the speed of the Minneapolis, an armed U. S. cruiser built to be in case of war a commerce destroyer.

Since the Armstrong Mitchell & Co. have built on the Tyne a faster one—the Buenos Aires—for the Argentine Government. Her speed is 23½ knots an hour tested, and yet not under full pressure. The pennant for war vessel building must still therefore remain with Great Britain. But what our shipping lines must look to is their chance of escaping in case of war. Supposing the Argentine Government and the U. S. or England at war, with the Buenos Aires in these waters, where would the Australia, Alameda, Mariposa, Monowai, Miowera, or Warrimoo be? And where would our Hawaiian mail and cargo go to? We should be out of it altogether. And other nations will no doubt follow the examples of these two governments in building such boats.

The small men clothed in brief authority under the Republic of Hawaii must have some very funny ideas in regard to smugglers, flibusters, and the other pirates who recently are making the lives of our officials unpleasant. The W. G. Hall met a whaleboat manned with four natives and containing Deputy Sheriff Baldwin of Lahaina, and young Chillingworth. Both were armed and very hungry. They were looking for pirates. They got a meal from the Malulani—but what would they have got if they had met that schooner? Isn't it time to end the farce.

Bar Association.

A meeting of the Bar, called by the Attorney General, met at 11:30 a. m. at the Attorney General's office for the purpose of adopting resolutions in re Bickerton. A committee was formed consisting of C. Creighton, L. A. Thurston and J. L. Kaulukou, W. O. Smith being added to the Committee later, he being chairman of the meeting and A. S. Humphreys, secretary.

The question of the formation of a Bar Association was briefly discussed, and then the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the chairman for the purpose of forming the Association.

At the meeting of the Supreme Court in banco Monday morning, the resolutions of condolence in re Bickerton will be presented.

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, Dec. 12, 1895.

He had been in the Hawaiian Islands nearly a year. He arrived here in the latter part of January, 1895, and his fortunes had been between the "ups" and "downs." This is the first Christmas that he is to experience far from home, far from his friends and his relations. The old picture of the snow-clad hills, the merry bells of the sleigh, and the blaze of the Christmas trees is inscribed on his mind. He has made friends here in the ever sunny clime of Hawaii. His friends want him to forget the longing for the snowy country and the Christmas as he saw it; and they will offer him their presents and Christmas gifts and try to make him believe that he once more is patronized by the King of the North, Santa Claus.

To help in that noble purpose we have imported the very thing suitable for Christmas presents. This year we have made a speciality of Aluminium Ware, and we propose to present to the public something never seen here before. Aluminium Toilet Sets are the rage and fashion to-day in every part of the civilized world. They are made of pure Aluminium and will not tarnish. The Aluminium Ware looks like silver and give as much pleasure to the owner as do goods made of sterling silver. We know of no more appropriate Christmas present than a set of Combs and Brushes in Aluminium. Or a Card Receiver, a Mirror, a Cigar Stand, Ash Receiver, etc., etc. The price of these excellent goods brings them within the reach of everybody and to give a truly useful Christmas present has become easy to everyone.

While we have imported a large invoice of Aluminium Ware we have not neglected our Silver Goods; Pitchers and Plates Cocktail Shakers and Forks and Knives in the latest fashions are a special feature of our Christmas exhibition. We have all kinds of Plated Silverware of the highest degree and finish, and we invite the public to call at our store and remember the poor lonely fellows who, on Christmas eve, will feel homesick and lonely and deeply grateful for the smallest token signifying that they are not forgotten, although far away from home.

BY AUTHORITY.

REGULATIONS OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Relating to Fishing and the Sale of Fish in the City of Honolulu.

SECTION 1—The taking of scale fish, shell fish or any product of the sea or water from any part, inlet or branch of the Honolulu Harbor, or from any stream emptying into said harbor to and within one hundred feet beyond any point affected by the tides towards the land from said harbor and within a line running from the point at Iwilei near the Pork Packing Company's slaughter house to the office of the quarantine station, thence to the can buoy, and from the can buoy to and along the western wall of the coral enclosure for dredgings at Kakaako, is strictly prohibited.

SECTION 2—The sale of fish and of all products of the sea is prohibited in the district of Honolulu, excepting at the new market building and such other places as are specially permitted where fish and the products of the sea may be exposed for sale under supervision of Inspectors appointed by the Board of Health.

SECTION 3—Such Inspectors shall have power to seize, condemn and destroy any fish or product of the sea exposed for sale, or brought to the market which they shall have reason to believe was taken from the locality prohibited by these regulations, or which shall appear to be unfit for food.

SECTION 4—The Regulations of the Board of Health relating to the sale and taking of fish dated November 13, 1895, are hereby rescinded.

By order of the Board of Health.
